WHAT WILL YOUR LEGACY BE?

Expanding the freedom of Americans with a terminal illness to make their end-of-life decisions.

Promoting assisted-dying laws around the United States.

Bringing peace of mind to future generations.

Death with Dignity works to ensure Americans with a terminal illness can die on their own terms with peace of mind. Your generosity and foresight make this possible.

Death with Dignity has a longstanding record of managing donor funds diligently and strategically to ensure your gift has a lasting impact. Your legacy gift will sustain our work for generations to come.

Together, we can devise a planned giving strategy that meets your financial priorities, honors your personal values, and reflects your philanthropic vision.

Legacy Giving Options

BEQUEST BY WILL OR TRUST

You can name Death with Dignity as a beneficiary in your bequest through several methods: a percentage of your estate, a specific dollar amount, a defined asset, or a remainder of other bequests.

CHARITABLE REMAINDER TRUST

You can donate your assets to a charitable trust that will pay you or your loved ones for life or a defined period. The remaining assets in the trust will eventually become a gift to Death with Dignity. It can be funded with cash, real estate, or other non-cash assets.

GIFT ANNUITY

A charitable gift annuity allows you to contribute while you, or someone you designate, receives the security of a fixed income for life.

CHARITABLE LEAD TRUST

With a charitable lead trust, you can support Death with Dignity via an established trust, with the principal returning to you or your beneficiaries later.

GIVING FROM IRAs

Naming Death with Dignity as the beneficiary of your IRA is one of the easiest ways to make a charitable gift. These gifts are not subject to estate or income tax, so 100 percent of the IRA nonprofit donations are received by the charity.

GIVING FROM A LIFE INSURANCE POLICY

Naming Death with Dignity as the beneficiary of your life insurance policy is a simple way to make a lasting impact.

Dignity Circle members also receive special invitations to webcasts with movement leaders, advocacy updates, and our newsletters and annual reports.
